Sympathy of Knoxville White Citizens Turned Toward Soldiers by Chance.

An unfounded rumor of the violenmilitia, doing duty in Knoxville during

The two Memphis companies of guardamen returned to this city Tuesday night from Knoxville, where they did yoeman service in reatoring order fellowing the outbreak that was brought about when a negro assaulted and killed a white woman. Rumors of the trouble in Knoxville reached the camp at Fountain City during the early hours of the evening and the commanders of the Memphis companies immediately fermed their men and made ready for the call which they feit sure would come.

Fired by Mistake.

Fired by Mistake.

The men later were rushed to the city in auto trucks and assumed change remaining on duty until after order had been restored. Only one member of the state militia was killed the other military casualty being Lieut. Payne, of the regular army who was an instructor. His death was caused by a pistoi or rife shot fired by a negro, according to Capt. Abe Waldauer and Lieut. Will Ward, of Memphis. Lieut, Payne was with the officer commanding the machine gun battalion ahead of the men as they advanced through a negro section of the city. The men had been ordered not to fire until fired upon. A shot rang out and Lieut. Payne staggered to one side. Excited civilians yelled to the guardsmen to fire, and mistaking the cries for commands from their efficers they opened fire. After being struck, Lieut. Payne had staggered into range of the machine gun and when the men opened fire his body was riddled. He died before reaching the hospital.

Worse Than Flanders. Hardware stores and pawrshops were looted for firearms and ammunition by both whites and negroes and wheg the guardsmen assumed charge hundreds of weapons were confiscated. In one metanos two men were searched and six revolvers rewarded the searchers. All negro districts were placed under military guard, all Labor day celebrations were canceled and soon after the artival of the guardsmen quiet prevailed throughout the city, but not until after the juli had been stormed, proisoners released and searchers, the juli had been stormed, proisoners released and deaths had ensued.

From a military standpoint. Capt. Waldayer and Lieut. Ward, both werld war veterans, declare that the battlefields of France and Flanders were preferable to the street fighting at Lacytile.

"in France." they stated, "the men were under could be maintained, but in Knoxville the men were wholly unprotected and owing to the intermingling of civillians, commands could not be given properly and the men did not know friend from foo."

Buring the past two or three days, the officers said, the exodus of negroes. Hardware stores and pawnshops were foe,"

During the past two or three days, the officers said, the exodus of negroes from Knoxville had become general. Many of these negroes are leaving the city never to return, while others are seeking safer quarters for the time belies.

Solons Question Witnesses As To Packers' Motives

WASHINGTON Sept 2.—Conflict over motives of witnesses appearing to oppose legislation for the regulation of the packing industry was renewed to also before the senate agriculture committee. Senator Kenyon, Republican, lowa, author of the principal regulative measure, opened fire on W. D. Reynolds, a Fort Worth, Tex., cattleman, as soon as the witness took the stand. "You are the same man who came down here to testify for the packers when the Borland resolution proposing an investigation came up." Senator Kenyon asked.

when the Borland resolution proposing an investigation came up". Senator Kenyon asked.

"I am." Reynolds responded.

"When you came here before, the pickers paid your expenses, didn't they?"

"Well, they paid part of them."

"Will you tell this committee now that you do not expect to be paid again."

"I do: I expect to pay my own ex-

One of the new men will be a mounted carrier for duty in the outskirts of the city, while a three-trip carrier will be placed on duty to take care of the business section of the city rapidly spreading eastward. The addition of the collector will increase the frequency and extent of collections while the fourthman will be used as a two-trip carrier in the residential section.

PREDICTS JAPS WILL NOT COMPETE UPON SHIPS

SAN FRANCISCO. Sept 1.—Prediction that rising costs of construction eventually would prevent Japan from acting as a competitor of the United States in shipbuilding, even for her naw people, was made here today by T. Hirota manager of a Japanese shipping company who has arrived here from kobe. Atr. Hirota said it glow costs $18? a ton to build steel ships in Japan, and that increasing living costs are forcing up the wages paid workmen and consequently the cost of constructing ships.
